Projects

Simul - Team Lead - September 2016

A decoupled mobile visibility platform for the Syrian refugee crisis where a user can post firsthand stories, request specific resources, and be contacted. Built Rails API using PostgreSQL deployed to Heroku, and React Native utilizing JSX and implemented internationalization and localization.

Reach - August 2016

A mobile/web app to preset and send text messages, so in a time of crisis a user simply opens the application and presses 'REACH' to connect with their support network. Enables users to reach out before talking themselves out of seeking help. Built using Sinatra for web and React Native/Rails for mobile.
